Iowa: not required if police investigate

Illinois: if no insurance, report within 10 days; damage in excess of $500

HI Note: Hawaii statute provides an automatic shift in primary coverage away from the rental company so long as they provide a third party claimant with the renter's identity, address, and the individual's insurer.

Louisiana: crashes must be reported within 1 day and physical damage is in excess of $100

North Dakota: crashes with undomesticated animal do not have to be reported

VA Note: Individual's primary insurance is exposed to subrogation when an individual is renting a vehicle after court ruled the rental company has right of indemnification from renter.
